This unit was developed to meet the following standards.

California Academic Content Standards History-Social Science Grade Ten: World History, Culture, and Geography: The Modern World

10.9 Students analyze the international developments in the post–World War II world.

2. Analyze the causes of the Cold War, with the “free world” on one side and Soviet client states on the other, including competition for influence in such places as Egypt, the Republic of the Congo, Vietnam, and Chile.
3. Understand the importance of the Truman Doctrine and the Marshall Plan, which established America’s postwar policy of supplying economic and military aid to prevent the spread of Communism, and the resulting economic and political competition in arenas such as Southeast Asia, Cuba, and Africa.

CTE AME Industry Sector Foundation Standards

Specific applications of Historical Interpretation standards (grades nine through twelve):

(1) Students show the connections, causal and otherwise, between particular historical events and larger social, economic, and political trends and developments.
